

FIRE SWEEPS AN EASTERN CITY

A Large Part of Business Portion of Waterbury, Conn., Destroyed.

THE LOSS IS $3,000,000

Two Deaths Reported and It Is Feared Others Are Under the Ruins.

MILITIA IN SERVICE

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 3.—The best business portion of Waterbury, Conn., is in ashes this morning as a result of a great fire that raged ten hours last night and this morning. The District bounded by Exchange place, Bank street, Grand street and South Main are practically wrecked. The loss is placed at three million dollars.

Several times during the early morning hours the firemen got the flames under control but a heavy wind started the blaze afresh. In all about one hundred business houses were destroyed in an area of four acres.

The city is now practically under martial law. Hundred of homeless are being sheltered at the Armory, City Hall, churches and other public places.

Mayor Kilduff said this morning that though the suffering was grievous a call for financial aid from outside cities would not be made. Many were injured while the fire was raging by falling on the icy pavements and being trampled upon by the crowds that filled the streets.

Two deaths have been reported and it is feared that the list of fatalities will grow when details are learned. At present all is confusion. Many persons were seen rushing into threatened buildings, and it is not impossible that some of these perished.

From Hartford, New Haven, and other cities, firemen and fire engines arrived on special trains, but the combined efforts of the departments did not suffice to cope with the terrible blaze. A fierce gale prevailed, sweeping the flames before it, and scattering the burning embers over fresh fields for devastation.

The fire originated from unknown cause in the upholstery department on the third floor of the store of the Field & Hughes Dry Goods company, at 108-112 Bank street. It was not discovered until it had gained great headway. When the fire department reached the scene flames were issuing from very window of the building, and it was evident that the structure was doomed.

WAR TAX BILL HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 3.—A rider to the war repeal bill placing the trust made products of steel on the free list was reported unfavorably by the house ways and means committee, this morning. If all the democratic members of the committee had been present the measure would have been reported favorably, as two republicans, Twaney and Babcock, voted with the minority and two other republicans and two democrats were absent.

Examination of Brown
The examination of T. O. Brown, of Orfordville, on the charge of embezzling money from the Birmingham-Hixon Lumber Co., while he had charge of their yard in Orfordville was called this morning in the municipal court. After listening to the testimony of M. C. Mason and Christian Syntekard for the state, the defense offering no testimony, Judge Fitch held Brown for trial in the municipal court, on February 11, at 10 a. m. He fixed Brown's bail at $1,000 in default of which he went to jail.

SHOULD BE DRAGGED OUT AND SHOT WHEN HE REACHES THE AGE OF 45

Summary Riddance Proposed for Those Who Are Beyond the Working Age—Age Bars Mechanics.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—"A man should be dragged out and shot when he has reached the age of 45 years. He has outlived his usefulness. He is dead timber in the pathway of progress under modern industrial conditions. I suggest that a law be drafted and submitted to the legislature for passage which shall provide that all persons, unless they can show that they have enough property saved up to keep them during the rest of their natural lives, be shot."

This was the way the serious question of an age limit for mechanics and laborers was put by one of the speakers at the meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday. It was said that some of the railroads and large manufacturing establishments now refuse to hire a man over 25 years old, and that mechanics are discharged at the age of 45 by these concerns because they are too old. Daniel Kennedy of the Boiler-makers' union stated that twenty-five first

FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE INSANE

Warrants for the Support of County Asylums Are Issued, Aggregating $376,923.88.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—The secretary of state has issued warrants for the maintenance and care of the chronic insane in county asylums. The twenty-eight counties maintaining such asylums will receive sums ranging from $1,000 to $22,000. The state pays $1.50 a week for the care and keep of every chronic insane person in these asylums. Counties not having any asylum pay a similar amount for each of its chronic insane in the asylums of other counties and also $12.50 per annum for clothing. Consequently counties having asylums of this character receive $168.50 per year for non resident patients and $78 a year for resident patients. Of the $376,923.88 to be paid to counties having these asylums this year $95,269.71 has been collected from counties not having such institutions. Rock county will receive $13,716.55.

MONEY COMES FROM THE ONE-MILL TAX

Warrants Issued Upon the State Treasury for Amounts To Be Paid to Public Schools.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—The secretary of state has issued warrants upon the state treasury for $1,639,825.01, which is the amount to be paid the common schools this year. This money comes from the one-mill tax and from several other sources. The income from the one mill tax was $1,436,284. The apportionment of this money is based on the number of children of school age in each district. The treasurer will make the payments as soon as possible, which will probably be in a few days.

TERRIFIC STORM SWEEPS OVER EAST

Railroads Are Crippled and Telegraph Lines Down—Snow a Foot or More Deep.

New York, Feb. 3.—Railroads are tied up and telephone and telegraph lines are down as the result of a terrific storm which swept over the country from the great lakes to the Atlantic seaboard.

New York City felt the full force of the windstorm, but escaped the heavy snowfall that has played havoc with traffic further west. At one time on the bay the hurricane attained a velocity of seventy-five miles an hour, but beyond a few parted hawners no damage was done to shipping. The city itself was less fortunate. Chimneys, signs and bill boards were blown down, and in a few cases huge show windows were forced in and shattered by the blasts.

Railroads will be the heaviest sufferers as the lines in Western New York are seriously hampered by the snowfall, which at some points reached a depth of nearly a foot.

Sunday's storm continues throughout the state and along the Jersey coast. The Mohawk Valley is experiencing the worst blizzard since '88. The country roads are blocked with snow and the railroad traffic is greatly impeded.

The wires are down in all directions. Several wrecks are reported on Long Island with a probable loss of life. The fate of forty-two men on board the Cavour is in doubt. Wreckage has appeared along the shore at various points. A seventy mile gale is rushing along the New England coast.

Campbell-Spence Wedding

Harry Campbell and Gertrude Spence were quietly married at the residence of George Slater, 212 North Bluff street Saturday evening at 6:30. Rev. Churm performed the ceremony. Mr. Campbell is employed at the Jefferson mills. Miss Spence is a professional nurse and both were formerly pupils. They will make their home for the present with Mrs. Slater. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

BADGER FARMERS MEET THIS WEEK

State Agriculturists Hold Their Annual Convention at Madison.

AT STATE CAPITOL

The Horticulturists and Stock Breeders Are Also Included in Program.

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Eight state associations of agriculturists, horticulturists, stock breeders, etc., will hold their annual conventions in Madison this week. All railroads have given a rate of a fare and a third for a round trip for the entire week, and a large gathering is expected. All the associations will hold their sessions in the state capitol.

The first to meet is the State horticultural society. Its executive committee meets this evening for a business session, and the regular convention opens tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Wednesday and Thursday will be held Agricultural mass conventions inaugurated a year ago, and held under the Wisconsin state board of agriculture. Wednesday evening there will be a joint session of the board of agriculture, the State Horticultural society and the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment association and Short Course Alumni, at which Governor R. M. LaFollette and ex-Gov. W. D. Hoard will make addresses.

The several association which meet during the week, in addition to the Madison convention, are:

Wisconsin State Horticultural Society, Wisconsin Agricultural Experimental Association and Short Course Alumni, Wisconsin Beekeepers' Association, Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders' Association, Wisconsin Society of Veterinary Graduates, Wisconsin Southern Breeders' Association, Western Growers' Association, Wisconsin Fair Managers' Association.

An interesting program of papers and discussions has been prepared for the mass convention, as follows:

Wednesday, Feb. 5, 9 A. M.
Growing Farm Vegetables, Delbert Utter, Caldwell Culture and Raising of Tobacco, Jamesville The Sugar Industry, A. F. Postel, Monmouth Falls 2 O'clock P. M.

Some Problems in Rural Hygiene, W. D. Frost, Madison Telephone in Farmers' Homes, Geo. Wyllie, Leeds Some Agricultural Observations in Europe, and their Lessons to the American Farmer, Prof. W. A. Henry, Madison The Relation of Soils to the Geology of North Central Wisconsin, Prof. S. Waldman, Madison Thursday, Feb. 6, 9 A. M.

The Importance of Training Seed Oats to Prevent Smut, Prof. R. A. Moore, Madison Agricultural Resources of Northern Wisconsin, L. K. Wright, Watousa Lessons from the Drift of 1901, Thomas Convey, Ridgeville 2 O'clock P. M.

ENGLAND REJECTS BOER PROPOSALS

Dutch Must Obtain Authority of the Fighting Burghers, and Then Apply Again.

The Hague, Feb. 3.—An official announcement was made today that premier Kruger had received England's reply to his note regarding the peace overtures for South Africa. The reply will be published tomorrow. It is learned that England provisionally rejects the proposals but that negotiations will be continued.

It is believed that the reply hinted that the Dutch government should obtain authority of the fighting Boers for their proposals and then apply again.

FREIGHT WRECK ON ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Gratiot, Wis., Feb. 3.—A bad rear end freight wreck occurred on the Illinois Central eight miles south of this place in which five stockmen were killed and nine wounded and a great amount of property destroyed. Gratiot is in La Fayette county on the Mineral Point division of the St. Paul road.

FAILED TO CANCEL A REVENUE STAMP

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Neglect to cancel a revenue stamp on a keg of beer cost Dewitt Hull, a saloon keeper at Edgar, Marathon county, $100, by way of a fine in the federal court today. He pleaded guilty.

Capt. Thos. C. Withrow, the Mississippi river captain charged with making a fraudulent affidavit regarding the loss of a big toe in making his application for a pension, pleaded not guilty, and was admitted to $500 bail.

TRAGEDY IN THE TOWN OF PORTER

James Churchill, an Eighteen Year Old Boy Accidentally Shot.

COST HIM HIS LIFE

Charles Monthi, a Rabbit Hunting Companion, Carried Gun Around Cocked.

STUMBLE AND A SHOT

James Churchill, seventeen years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Churchill of the town of Porter, was the victim of a terrible accident yesterday afternoon, which cost him his life. His death was caused by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of a companion named Monthi. The load struck him in the back of the head just at the base of the brain, and plowed a furrow through the skull and brain to the forehead, killing him instantly.

Out Hunting Rabbits

As near as can be learned, Young Churchill started out yesterday with Willie and James Churchill, his cousins, the sons of William Churchill, and Albert Ellis and Charles Monthi, to hunt rabbits in the woods about three-quarters of a mile south of his home. They had tramped a long distance through the woods and had killed several rabbits, the victim of the shooting having one suspended from his neck by a string when he was killed.

They were walking along through the woods Churchill a short distance in front of Monthi, both of them carrying their guns cocked to be ready to shoot anything that jumped up.

Carried His Gun Cocked

They had traveled along in this manner for some distance when Monthi caught his toe on a stub and stumbled. In trying to save himself from falling he involuntarily pressed the trigger to his gun causing it to go off, the entire charge hitting Churchill in the back of the head. The muzzle of Monthi's gun was so close to Churchill's head when it was discharged that the flame from the muzzle burned his hair.

Was Instantly Killed

When the charge struck him Churchill made one convulsive movement of his hands towards his head, dropped his gun and fell over backwards and was dead before he struck the ground. Monthi, when he saw the result of his shot fainting dead away and when he came to asked Albert Ellis to shoot him, saying "I don't want to live any longer. I did not mean to do it."

Churchill's companions were terror stricken when they saw the result of the accident and dropped the gun and started for the home of Michael Riley a short distance away. They were so frightened that they left their guns where they dropped them and would not go back to them.

Body Carried Home

Mr. Riley at once hitched up a wagon, drove over to where Churchill lay. They picked him up and carried him to his father's home.

The boys hurried on ahead of the wagon to inform the parents of the accident. Monthi went into the house ahead of the rest of the boys and running up to Mrs. Churchill threw his arms around her neck, began to cry, saying, "I've done it; I have killed Jimmy."

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill were heartbroken over the news but tried to comfort Monthi, who was almost crazy.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill had been on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Frank Benah of the town of Center and had carried Jimmy part way to his uncle's where he met the rest of the boys. His mother's last words to him when he left the wagon were "Jimmy be careful of your gun," he answered back, "I will, mother," and the next time she saw him was when he was brought to the home dead.

Doctor Could Do Nothing

Dr. McManus was at once summoned from Edgerton but there was nothing he could do outside of dressing the wounds when he arrived. He examined the dead boy and found the charge had plowed a furrow through the skull and brain about the size of the bore of the gun, which was a fourteen gauge, from the base of the brain to the frontal bone where it stopped, and that death must have been instantaneous.

Justice D. L. Earle of the town of Porter, issued a venire for a coroner's jury and an inquest was held this morning. The jury brought in a verdict of accidental death from a gun shot wound caused by Charles Monthi and exonerated him from any criminal intent.

The young man was just coming into manhood and was a general favorite in the community where he lived. His terrible ending will be a sad shock to his many friends, both at his home and in this city where he was employed for a time by the Janesville Machine company.

He leaves to mourn his death besides a broken hearted father and mother one brother, William E. Churchill of 114 North Jackson street and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Benah of the town of Porter, and Mary Churchill who resided at home.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from his home in the town of Porter and the interment will be at the Taylor cemetery in Porter.

ANNE SCRIBNER MAKES HER DEBUT

Another Wisconsin Girl Takes Up the Stage—Appears in "Lovers' Lane" at Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 3.—Miss Anne Scribner, who last night made her professional debut as an actress in William A. Brady's "Lovers' Lane" at McVicker's theater, is an Evanston girl and has been prominent in the university set in the classic suburb. Miss Scribner has figured in amateur and university dramas for some months, and previous to her return to Evanston she attended the university of Wisconsin at Madison, where she was popular in the dramatic club of the institution. Recently Miss Scribner played a leading role in "Because She Loved Him So," and she is now conducting the rehearsals of the Sophomore play of Northwestern University. She is also to play Lavina, in the "cook-lady," in "Why Smith Left Home," at the Evanston County Club. The young actress is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and is at present studying at Northwestern along special lines of English. In "Lovers' Lane" she will play Mrs. Lane, the sister of the black sheep of the play—it has no villain. The part is an important one though not long, as Mrs. Lane has but a single scene.

WHITEHEAD CALL SIGNED BY 500

The Janesville Man Makes a Strong Showing in the County of Eau Claire.

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 3.—(Special)—The call to Senator Whitehead circulated in Eau Claire county under the direction of Capt. Marshall Cousins, who is chairman of the republican county committee, has already been signed by about 500 and a considerable number of additional names will be attached or already have been, as the lists are not all in from the country. As no systematic canvass has been made, the result thus far is gratifying to the conservative republicans, who feel that the Janesville man is pretty strongly entrenched in this county. Nobody has been pulled or hauled to attach his name, and the call is practically a spontaneous expression of sentiment. The Daily Telegram this afternoon prints the first installment of the list of names, which includes such prominent men as Colonel J. T. Barber, Captain Henry Mayor Rowe, David Drummond, Alexander Meggett, John S. Owen and M. B. Hubbard.

SECRETARY WILSON WILL ATTEND IT

Some Notable Men to Meet the Farmers at the Round-Up Institute at Oconomowoc.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—George McKerrow, superintendent of farm institutes, has received a letter from secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture at Washington, saying he will attend the "round-up" institute to be held at Oconomowoc, March 18, 19 and 20. Secretary Wilson will give an address on agricultural products for export. If he should not be able to attend the secretary has promised to send one of his department chiefs. Governor La Follette, Director Woods of the Maine experiment station and Professor Stevenson of the Illinois State University have also promised to attend the institute and make addresses.

"The round-up" will be the final institute of the winter, and its proceedings will be put into book form and distributed among farmers next summer.

MRS. SOFFEL IS LIKELY TO DIE

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 3.—The bodies of Ed. and Jack Biddle arrived here this morning and an immense throng gathered at the depot. Reports from Butler say Mrs. Soffel's condition is alarming.

If Mrs. Soffel recovers it is likely she will be charged not only with aiding the Biddles to escape but also with furnishing them with fire-arms thus aiding in the felonious assault on the guards. On the combined charges she will be given six or eight years.

AN EARLY SEASON FOR POLITICS: ANXIETY ALL ALONG THE LINE

Congressman Cooper of the First District Appears to Have a Cinch on the Nomination.

Milwaukee, Feb. 3.—This is to be a very early season for politics of every kind. From constable up to congressmen candidates are getting out and taking an account of stock to see where they are likely to be when the hot winds of summer sweep over the conventions. While the members of the congressional delegation are at Washington doing their best for their state and constituents they are by no means forgetting the necessity of keeping "their weather eye lifted" in the direction of their districts.

Under the conditions existing at the present time there are certain to be complications which will make a renomination and a re-election a matter of more difficulty than usual. In the matter of nominations most of the present members of the delegation will have little to worry over, Congressman Cooper in the First

WHITEHEAD HAS CLEAN RECORD

Tax Commission Bill Defeated by Gov. La Follette's Friends.

RIDES NO HOBBIES

Janesville Man Fights Election Measure and Loses Friendship of Administration.

CHARGES REFUTED

Reformers who were a year ago the fast friends and admirers of Senator John M. Whitehead of Janesville have suddenly discovered, since he seems to be the choice of a large number of the leading republicans of the state for the governorship, that he is no wise entitled to their support, says the Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean.

Leaders of the La Follette movement including the machine organs, are the most vehement in their denunciation and opposition to the Janesville man. Whitehead has a clean record as a taxation reformer and was acknowledged as such during the last legislature by the very men who are now so certain that he is not what he professes to be.

Threatened With Defeat

La Follette is threatened with defeat in his ambitions by one who was supposed by him and his followers to be in sympathy more or less with many of his ideas. However, at the last session of the legislature Senator Whitehead refused to be whipped into line with other able members of the legislature in support of the Stevens primary election bill, which was at that time the hobby of the governor.

Senator Whitehead was not in favor of the Stevens bill for the reason that he believed that it was revolutionary and an exaggeration of the demand (or recommendation) of the plank in the republican state platform. He has spent a great deal of time in the efforts which resulted in the defeat of that obnoxious and un-republican measure.

Misrepresenting Whitehead.

La Follette and his followers have never complained until recently that Whitehead was not sound from their point of view on the taxation question and it is probable that they never would have questioned him in this respect had not the stalwarts not indicated that they intended to support him for the gubernatorial nomination at the next convention.

Up to date the LaFollette men and their newspapers have failed to specify wherein he fails to meet the requirements of those who are in favor of equal taxation. However, the official organs of the governor a few days ago that the unqualified charge that "the defeat of the tax commission's bill last winter was owing more to Senator Whitehead's action or non-action, than to any other man or set of men in the legislature."

Refute the Charges

The official record contains an absolute refutation of this charge, for the railroad tax bills were both killed in the Assembly while Senator Whitehead was a member of the senate. At the time these measures were before the assembly that body was known as "the reform house," and admitted by everyone to be under the control of the governor. Leading members of the assembly who voted for the Stevens primary election bill, according to the wishes of Governor La Follette, voted against the ad valorem assessment of the railroad property.

Senator Whitehead was the father of the tax commission, believes in it, and is a real reformer, but rides no hobbies. The record shows that it cannot be denied successfully.

Lord Roberts' Faith in Prophecy.

Lord Roberts, like a great many other prominent men, has a superstitious streak in him. Many years ago, he declares, his great march from Kabul to Kandahar was foretold to him by an Oriental fortune teller, who also predicted its success. Ever since then the little man has had considerable faith in prophecies.

Theatrical Notes

There has never been seen anything more legitimately amusing than the hymn singing episode in "The County Fair," which is to be produced at the Myers Grand on Wednesday, Feb. 5th.

"Miss Abigail Prue," the gentle old spinster, whom Mr. Burgess so faithfully represents, takes up her hymn book, arranges her spectacles, sits in her rocking chair, relegates Sally Greenaway to the harmonium, and then joins in the song.

The expression of her face, the diligent, rasping voice, the attention, first rapt, then finally wandering to the oven; and the air of relief with which the hymn book is finally closed are simply masterly touches.

The interest in Mr. Burgess' impersonation is great, and is to be found, not in its broad outlines, but in the thousand dainty little artistic touches that could only have been acquired by long and careful study. In every detail "Miss Abigail Prue" is an admirable picture. "The County Fair" is at all times admirably put on but with Mr. Burgess in the leading role, nothing could be better. It gathers in its five acts a great deal of human nature, a few touches of true pathos, and many quiet photographs of New England rusticity. The elderly maiden's farm is mortgaged but her heart is still open and there is always room at her table for the unfortunate. In two or three of these she ultimately discovers her best benefactors, for they repay her love and confidence by freeing her from debt.

This is the simple story of the play. The horse race, the corn husking, the farm pictures are all worth seeing.

An enviable reputation is established wherever the Howard-Dorset company has appeared this season, and last. The press from cities in the middle states and south speaks very highly of their work. "The Plunger," a sensational comedy drama, made famous some years ago by Oliver Doud Byron, at high prices, will be the opening bill tonight. The piece is strictly up-to-date, with strong specialities, singing and dancing between acts, making a continuous performance. The advance sale for the opening night opened Saturday morning. A lady will be admitted free, if accompanied by a person with a paid 30c ticket. It reserved prior to 2 o'clock this evening. Reserve your seats early and ask for ladies' free tickets for opening night. The people's price—10, 20, 30 cents.

"Like unto the babbling brook which runs on forever, plays may come and may pass into the dim unrecognizable distance of oblivion, but ever bright will be the memory of Edmond's delightful work. "When We Were 21," remain in the minds of those who enjoy the best to be had, and the best in the form of dramatic art. "When We Were 21" will repay many times the evening spent in attendance upon it. One of the most interesting features of the performance is the absence of claptrap and straining after impossible climaxes, a fault that most dramatic authors are addicted to in a greater or less extent; but there are situations in the play where the auditors must necessarily be brought to a high pitch of excitement by the intensely dramatic action of the play, and the essentially human characters conceived by the author. Brilliant Savarin, the famous French gastronome says "A good dinner may be spoiled by bad serving," and the same sage philosophy is applicable to a dramatic feast; the best play may be spoiled by inferior acting. Conscious of the demands made upon the actor who is called upon to impersonate any of these parts in "When We Were 21," the management have exercised the greatest care in the selection of their company, with the result that only the highest praise has been received by the ladies and gentlemen entrusted with the different roles. It is seldom that a stronger ensemble is met with outside of the metropolis. Every person who attends a dramatic representation has a right to be, and is, a self-constituted critic, so our theatergoers will have an opportunity to exercise their prerogative on Monday, Feb. 17, at the Myers Grand, when this favorite play will be presented to our public under the management of William Morris and John T. Hall.

"The Belle of New York," the great Shaftesbury theater, London, and New York Casino success, will appear in this city for one night at the Myers Grand on Feb. 11. "The Belle of New York" holds a record of 697 performances at the Shaftesbury theater. This is a record which has not been achieved by any other American play in London, and indeed, few plays, English or otherwise, have ever obtained such popularity. The cables brought glowing descriptions of the tumultuous enthusiasm at the conclusion of the London run of this piece; but it would seem that this was quite equalled by the warmth of the reception given to the company at the New York Casino. The cast of "The Belle of New York" this season will be a notable one, most of the members of the company being retained. New in the cast will be Miss Beulah Dodge as Violent Gray, the Salvation lassie. Miss Dodge is said, when she made her metropolitan debut in this part last season, to have given a most worthy and meritorious performance, and everywhere she has appeared she has met with instant success in this role.

This is one way to make them lie in several heaps without making partition fences between the several beds. Stalls in an old stable will answer the same purpose if one is convenient for sleeping quarters for them.

Butchering time is generally dreaded on the farm. It is something that requires the help of several hands to do the work properly. Several neighbors can go together and make a good outfit for butchering and they can "butcher round" by going from place to place. Saturday is not a good day for it since the offal cannot be worked up before Monday and this is when the large boys are home from school. A fine day should be selected and all things put in readiness. If hogs are heavy some arrangement for handling them easily should be provided. A nice small rifle will be found better for killing than any other means. Nearly every neighborhood has some expert hand at the business and he should be employed to help. Kill lone more hog than was killed last year and not get out of meat.

If swill is depended upon for feeding a brood sow do not try to make up in quantity what it lacks in richness.

There are those who believe that a crop of green rye turned under is a means of increasing fertility. It is a help but it is not calculated to help fertility as legumes are. Rye is easy to grow. It prevents waste of fertility, it works over tough plant food for the use of other crops and adds some humus to the soil, but we should not expect it to maintain fertility by itself. It is better to have a crop of rye growing than to have the ground bare, but it will not fill the place of the clovers. A good way to kill out noxious weeds or grasses is to sow rye in corn, plow it under the next spring and sow to buckwheat or peas. Plow this crop down and sow to winter wheat and the worst weed will have a hard time of it. Some run down places usually become seedbeds with weeds or grasses that are hard to eradicate, hence the necessity of ridding the place of them.

If a man is not on the best of terms with his hogs then he is not a successful swine breeder. The swine breeder who hates his hogs hates his business.

It has always been a mystery to me why dealers and others wished to adulterate buckwheat flour when the grain is so easily grown. But very little of the buckwheat flour kept on sale is pure and there is no good reason why it should not be. People have gotten into the way of adulterating and they have to do it whether there is a demand for it or not.

It ought to be interesting to clover seed growers to know that dealers pay from $4 to $4.50 for dirty clover seed, which, when cleaned as it should be, sells readily at $6 to $7 per bushel. So many of us have not yet found out the value of cleaning seed. The farmer himself should be the first to find this out, and not the dealer.—Wisconsin Farmer.

SOCIAL LABOR TALK AT ASSEMBLY HALL

Frederick Strickland on "Shall Trusts Own People or the People Own the Trusts?"

Frederic Strickland, of Chicago delivered a lecture at the Assembly hall on Saturday night to an audience that filled every seat in the room. His subject was "Shall the Trusts Own the People, or the People Own the Trusts?"

The speaker was introduced by Mr. Allan Pardee of the local social club, under whose auspices the lecture was given. Mr. Strickland said that socialism would be the existing labor and political conditions in the world and that we could not prevent it if we desired to do so. It would be brought about particularly by the efforts of the workingman, but the chief factor in its promotion was the greed of capital.

At one time nearly every man in the world was a capitalist, then one man began to employ another, and this gradually developed under the spur of competition until at the present time but 15 per cent of the men are capitalists. From this time on as the number of capitalists decrease, the number of wage earners will increase and this will be no longer endurable and the people will be driven to socialism.

In speaking of panics Mr. Strickland said that their chief cause was that labor did not receive a just share of what it produced, not enough to enable it to purchase and consume the products. The producer was always on the outlook for new markets to avoid the panics caused by over production.

This was the cause of the Filipino war, more markets were reached and when the known world was conquered for this purpose they would yearn for other worlds to conquer. The middle men to day were the greatest sufferers from the trusts. A day would come when there would be a "trust of trusts" and then the people would take the control and divide and equalize labor and consumption, make a success of it, and that would be socialism. Trades unions were necessary and beneficial but the working men should go farther and think of the future.

Mr. Strickland is a pleasant and magnetic talker and held their undivided attention of his audience throughout the evening.

Wrinkles are smoothed away by its healing touch. Brain tired and depressed people will find a cure in Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. Smith's Pharmacy.

FORT WAYNE TEAM IS AGAIN BEATEN

Brilliant Game of Polo Played at the Palace Rink by the Taylors, Saturday Night.

The polo enthusiasts who visited the rink Saturday night saw a game that while it was one sided as far as goal were concerned, showed the Taylors to be a fast hard working and evenly balanced team, whose playing has improved to a remarkable degree during the last few weeks.

The games put up by the Taylors Friday and Saturday nights would have kept the Horlicks guessing even if it did not win. The team work was above reproach and Blake and George played a pass game that was perfect. Schaffer at center was where he was most wanted at all times and proved himself an active accurate player who does not lose his head even in the hottest scrambles. Behrendt at cover and Comstock at goal were kept busy most of the time and Comstock made some beautiful stops that surely meant a goal for Fort Wayne.

The visitors depended almost entirely on rushing slugging tactics to win, but were clearly outclassed when they tried their style of work against a team that was up on the modern game and had the pass feature down fine.

Boise and McCarthy played the star game for Fort Wayne, and had their support been equally as good there would have been much more equality in the score, but as compared with Blake and George they are not in the same class. The Fort Wayne team was also crippled by the loss of Eckert, their big goal tender. He was obliged to quit the game on account of sickness and Minor, who went in as goal tender was a poor substitute.

The game opened with a rush, the Taylors being rather slow to warm up and get into the game lost the first goal in 1:48 by a quick punt on the part of McCarthy. Here the score for the visitors stopped, and although they had the ball close in front of the Taylor's cage several times they were not able to cage it. Once when the ball was driven straight into the cage it struck the net and bounded out, this was a piece of hard luck.

After losing the first goal the Taylors got into the game and the ball was caged by George assisted by Blake in 48 seconds. The balance of the third was used up without either side scoring.

In the second third Blake and George with a perfect assistance from the rest of the team, brought the ball in front of the Fort Wayne goal where George drove it in. Time 4:10. The next goal was made for Janesville by Blake in 4:48. In this inning, Eckert, the Indiana goal tender, had to retire and Schaffer of the Taylors had the wind knocked out of him. Lawless was substituted. No more goals were made and at the end of the fifteen minutes the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of the Taylors.

The last third was signaled by rough play, the Fort Wayne's evidently hoping that by slugging and pounding they would be able to knock the Taylors out of the game. Here was the easy pass work of the Taylors came in good. The boys did not lose their heads and got in the mix up, but watched their chances to make a goal.

It soon came and Lawless, who was playing substitute for George, who broke his skate, caged the ball in 2:25. George was back on the floor when the play was resumed and made the next goal for the Taylors in 7:42, and another three minutes later. The score now stood six to one in favor of Janesville with only one minute and fifty-three seconds of time left. Blake made the seventh goal in 1:24 and the balance of the time elapsed without either side scoring, leaving the score 7 to 1 in favor of the Taylors.

The Indiana boys spoke very favorably of the Taylors and said with the same amount of practice, they would beat the Horlicks. They were much taken with Comstock's work at goal, and claimed he was by far the best they had yet met, and they had played with all the teams in the league.

Now would be a good time to get another game with Racine, it would be a close thing.

Some Farm Notes.

One of the urgent needs of the farmer is to be able to distinguish the profitable from the unprofitable undertaking. Not that we should have this faculty take the form of ultra-conservatism and thus block progress but so that we may be able to keep abreast of the times without getting ahead of them. It is very hard for some people to get rid of unprofitable stock, the superfluous horse or the inferior cow. The cost must always be regarded if we are able to strike the balance at any time. Here is where we often fail. Never try to make a profit at the expense of the health of any member of the family, for it is a price that is too dear to pay for worldly gain.

When I was a young man I used to watch the men in the meadow mowing the hay with scythes. Several of them would start in and then reach out in the standing grass as far as they could fetch their scythes blades through the grass with a "swish," and the cut grass would pile up in windrows. I noticed that some of the men would reach a little too far and some of the grass was left standing and it was the business of boys to gather these scattering heads. Some of the men would take a wider swath than they could gather. We have men today who are cutting a "wide swath" and there is more or less waste occasioned by it. It is everywhere visible in extensive farming. The man who is overstocking his pastures is also engaged in cutting a "wide swath." Cut a narrower swath and get all the grass.

The good times have caused everybody to get a little ahead. People who once were borrowers have ceased to borrow, and money that has been loaned out goes a begging. It seeks investment, and farms seem to be the best place for investment. This demand for farms has caused prices to go out of sight in some localities and it is doubtful whether prices are not higher than conditions justify. Later there will be times different from these. Money will be in demand. Farms will be for sale to get money. Throwing many farms on the market will depress prices and the man who has a farm partly paid for, contracted at high prices, will not be in the best shape to withstand such times when they come. There are some things that are worth the while of giving some thought.

Crates holding a bushel are very handy on the farm. To make a crate that will hold a bushel of apples or potatoes it should be fourteen by fourteen and thirteen inches deep and then it will hold a bushel when level full. When filled level full one can be placed upon another without bruising the contents. The end pieces can be made of lumber thirteen inches wide and should be sawed in lengths fourteen inches long. For sides and bottom saw five-eighths inch into sixteen inch lengths and nail on so as to hold fruit or vegetables and the crates are made. The end pieces should have hand holes cut in for convenience in lifting them. No one knows how handy these crates really are until some of them have been used.

It is all right to have all of the pigs in killing order when cholera comes into the neighborhood. To be able to sell everything when threatened in this manner may save a great deal.

The farmer who feeds all his feed products on his farm is not only a farmer but he is also a manufacturer. He is manufacturing finished products and he is manufacturing fertility as well. Nothing will nick so well with farming as stock raising.

Only a few years ago farmers "bucked" off their straw from the thrasher and set fire to it as soon as the thrasher could be moved away. When not bucked it was piled up with as little labor as possible and then fired. Many readers can remember when the thrasher would be moved several times on account of the encroachments of straw rather than have men take care of it. No straw has been burned in recent years. Not long since a farmer became the owner of a balky horse. A neighbor offered him a kicking cow and a straw stack for him. The trade was made and the cow as converted into beef, and the straw was baled and sold at $8.50 per ton. Straw is a by-product that will be appreciated more and more as the years go by.

There is really no good excuse for burning green wood, and the men who does it can no more find an excuse for it than those who do not. There may be those who feel that it is economy to burn it as it lasts longer and others may do so because they feel that they have no time to get up a year's supply ahead. Whatever excuse may be offered, it is poor policy to attempt to burn green wood. It requires heat to evaporate the sap that is in it. All this is a loss to say nothing of the loss of temper on the part of the housewife who attempts to get a meal by burning green wood.

It is all right to take off of both ends of the day plenty of time to do the chores without going to far into the night. Doing chores by lamplight is one thing that causes dissatisfaction with the farm among boys and girls.

If swine pile up in large heaps on a cold night so as to endanger their lives, nail a few 2x4's or 2x6's on the floor edge wise, making the beds about as large as one cares to have piles. Hogs do not like to lie across these scantlings nailed to the floor.

MORE ENTHUSIASM IN RELIGIOUS WORK

Earnest Sermon by the Rev. R. M. Vaughan at Baptist Church on Sunday Morning.

In his sermon on Sunday morning the Rev. R. M. Vaughan at the First Baptist church vigorously admonished his congregation not to permit chief formality or a misconception of propriety or nullify either their own or other persons' religious zeal. He spoke with more than usual earnestness and interpreted in a lucid and forcible manner convincing his congregation of the possible evil influence of these things when carried to an extreme.

He began by stating that in many countries fire was an object of worship. The reason for this was that because of its properties; it being the nourisher of life, the origin of the power, the cause of light and heat, it was considered to be divine in nature or origin.

The essentialness of fire awarded it the veneration of heathen lords. And for the same reasons the quality of enthusiasm which was essential to the accomplishment of any high purpose ought to be respected, given encouragement and not extinguished even though its outer evidence was somewhat uncouth.

In illustrating this point he gave an incident which occurred at the Plymouth Congregational church of Chicago. A young man after being held out the probation list for a year was taken into membership of the church. He was of an ardent, enthusiastic nature and carried his enthusiasm into his religious life. He took part in the work of the church with a zeal and spoke at the prayer meetings with a fervor that disturbed the equality of the conservative members. He had but a limited knowledge of grammar and his errors in speaking caused him to be an object of derision. The result was that a committee waited upon him and the man who became the world's greatest evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, was requested to refrain from participating in the meetings until he could correct the errors of his language.

In continuing the pastor spoke of the baneful effects of the habit of criticizing which extinguished the enthusiasm for participating in church services or work in the hearts of many who were of retiring or timid natures.

He urged the necessity for more enthusiasm on the part of the congregation in religious work and deprecated the performing of religious duties in a perfunctory manner, from which there resulted no good to either the person or the world.

At the evening service the sermon was on "Jesus, and the man of the world."

ANNIVERSARY OF ENDEAVOR SOCIETY

There Are 55,000 Organizations and 3,500,000 Members Scattered All Over the World.

Sunday was the twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the Christian Endeavor society. It is observed by the societies everywhere as a decision day. The society of the Presbyterian church gave a special program for the occasion.

There are 55,000 Endeavor societies at present, scattered in every part of the world, and 3,500,000 members. Granting so much, it is true that a great deal of dead wood is included; many societies and members that do nothing more as such than they would so as members of the churches. But it easily the greatest of young people organizations, and its twenty-first birthday is eminent to be observed.

MINERS KILLED IN MEXICO.

Out of 100 Workmen in the Honda Mine Not One Escapes.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 3.—The latest information from the Honda, Mexico, mine explosion shows there were 100 men in the mine when the explosion occurred, and all are dead. The majority of the victims were Mexicans and Chinamen, very few Americans having been at work in the mine.

The work of clearing away the wreckage in order to get to the bodies is being pushed as rapidly as possible, but there is no hope that any one of the 100 men will be reached alive. Eighty-five bodies have been recovered.

The explosion occurred in mine No. 6 and was caused by the striking of a gas pocket. The mine is the property of the Conchula Coal company, R. M. McKenny being superintendent. The loss to the owners of the mine is very heavy.

Rockefeller Gives Harvard $1,000,000.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 3.—President Eliot has announced that John D. Rockefeller had promised $1,000,000 to assist in erecting the three buildings needed in the Medical School of Harvard, provided other friends of the university will subscribe $500,000 for the purchase of land. This duplicates the offer of J. P. Morgan, whose agreement to donate $1,000,000 for this purpose was announced at commencement exercises last June.

Utopia for Workers.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 3.—It is announced that J. E. Tilt, the millionaire shoe manufacturer of Chicago, will build a well shoe factory at Hooper, five miles east of Endicott, which will be the largest in the world. It is planned to have the factory conducted on the philanthropic plans and make it a Utopia for the workmen. The erection of the buildings will begin with the opening of spring.

Strike Followed by Shut-Down.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 3.—A strike of the double-loom weavers at the Riverside mills of the American Woolen Company, following a strike of the Weybosset mills weavers some time ago, caused the issuance of orders to close all the mills of the company in Providence and vicinity until further notice. The general shut-down threw 6,000 persons out of work.

To Explore the Upper Nile.

London, Feb. 3.—William Fitzhugh Whitehouse of Newport, R. I., accompanied by Lord Hindlip, has left England on his way to the upper Nile. After leaving the Abyssinian capital, which the travelers expect to reach early in April, the expedition will traverse Walama, known as the "devil-infested zone," and hope to reach the Sobat River in June.

Duluth's Big Ore Dock.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 3.—The Eastern Minnesota-Great Northern interest is to increase the length of its new ore dock on Alouez Bay, Superior, 6,000 feet, adding 100 pockets, representing 30,000 gross tons, and giving the entire dock a storage capacity of 100,000 gross tons. This will make the dock the largest ore-shipping structure in the world.

Pastor Previews a Riot.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 3.—A blaze started in Grace Episcopal church yesterday, one of the draperies on the altar catching fire from a candle, the flame being blown against it by a draft. It happened during the prayer just before the communion, and Rev. Mr. Feshburg, the officiating rector, jumped upon a table and bent out the flames with his hands.

Gage Goes to New York.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Lyman J. Gage, ex-secretary of the treasury, left here for New York to-day. Mr. Gage has six offers from great banking institutions, and more than one of these offers comes from New York. It was stated that Mr. Gage had not as reported, accepted a position in Chicago.

Trivial Quarrel Costs Life.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—In a quarrel involving $7 a man reputed to be worth $300,000 was shot and killed Saturday. C. O. Harz, veteran liveyman, was the victim. Edward Coughlin, a driver who had worked for him less than two months, shot him. Coughlin is under arrest, and pleads self-defense.

Old Cincinnati Banker Dies.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 3.—Sam Perkins, Bishop, the oldest banker in the country, died yesterday at his home at Walnut Hill, aged 95.

Payee's Secretary Sworn In.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Francis H. Whitney of Milwaukee has been sworn in as private secretary to Postmaster General Payne.

GROUND HOG SEES HIS OWN SHADOW

Six Weeks More of Cold—Zero Weather Reached This Section Again Yesterday Morning.

Janesville's ground hog crawled cautiously from its hole yesterday, saw its shadow in a dozen different fantastic shapes, froze its ears, and with a bark returned to its winter quarters. There it will stay for the next six weeks, according to the old story.

And the ground hog was not the only living thing that sought warm quarters yesterday. The temperature began falling at midnight Saturday and did not stop until it touched the zero mark at 8 o'clock last night.

The cheering hope is held out, however, that the severe weather will moderate gradually today and tomorrow, and that it soon will take itself to the eastward. The present cold snap is another Dakota production, which, while wandering around in the Rocky Mountains, slipped up this way by a southern route.

Winnipeg was the coldest place on the weather map, with a temperature of 16 degrees below zero. Boston reported a wind velocity of seventy-two miles an hour.

Woodlark Cuba's Finest.

Washington, Feb. 3.—"As a solution of the Cuban problem I would vote for our federal treasury to be distributed among the planters of that island," said Representative Grosvenor of Ohio, a member of the committee on ways and means. "The suggestion that the full duties be collected upon Cuban sugar, and that a percentage of the revenues thus received be refunded to the Cuban government comes nearest to receiving my indorsement."

Stop Work on New Merger Line.

Great Falls, Mont., Feb. 3.—An order has been received from Burlington headquarters stopping all work on the proposed line from Billings to Great Falls until the United States Supreme Court shall have disposed of the case brought against the Northern Securities company by Gov. Van Sant of Minnesota.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twice without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost despairing however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me of my rheumatism, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to poisonous habits. We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

CONSISTENCY.

It is amusing, to say the least, to note the commendation expressed by administration papers on Governor La Follette's supreme right to adopt any methods that may seem desirable, to retain supremacy, and also, how ready these same papers are to criticize the opposition for anything that may be done to thwart his ambition.

The Oshkosh Northwestern recently devoted a column in an attempt to prove that the conservative element of the party had no right to exist, and that Governor La Follette should be permitted to succeed himself, without opposition.

The Northwestern took for a text a paragraph from The Gazette, criticizing methods employed by the governor to further his interests in Rock county, and the paper attempts to prove that there is no legitimate cause for dissatisfaction with the governor, and that it is the duty of all republicans to be loyal to him.

There are some things in this world that have to be recognized as facts, and dealt with accordingly. It does not require a very bright intellect to discover that a large element of the republican party throughout the state, will no longer submit to the dictation of an erratic chief executive and it is too late in the day for the Oshkosh paper to suggest duty from a prejudiced standpoint, or offer very much in the way of advice.

Deplorable as may be the fact, the split in the party exists, and the breach is wider today, than at any period of its history. There is no disposition on the part of either element to read out of the party, opposition, because united effort, after the convention, will be necessary to party success, but the day has gone by when harmony in the preliminary campaign can be dismissed to advantage.

It is not necessary to repeat the familiar tale of causes that produced these conditions. The discussion of them is neither creditable nor profitable. They belong to history that has produced results, and the party has to do with results. It is a well established fact that Governor La Follette will exhaust every effort to succeed himself, and the fact is just as well established that he will be vigorously opposed by the conservative element of the party. The Northwestern may honestly deplore these conditions. So does every other republican journal in the state, but the contest is on, and the day for regrets is succeeded by the day of active opposition.

When the campaign is launched, personalities will be lost in the discussion of principles involved. There will be no contest against the man, La Follette, but the warfare will be sharp and decisive against the governor as a leader. The organs that represent him in his public capacity will discover that slander and burlesque are the cheapest kind of clap-trap argument, and that back of the eleventh story, made famous by scurrilous abuse, is a constituency whose influence is state wide.

The Northwestern is training in company with which it is not familiar, and for which it has but little genuine sympathy. The paper knows, as does every other intelligent, self-respecting republican paper in the state, that the welfare of republicanism at stake in the present campaign. It is the only party journal of any prominence in the state, that is supporting La Folletteism. The paper is not in harmony with itself, and will not be, until it takes its stand where it belongs, with common sense republicanism.

THE GOVERNOR, NOT THE MAN.

The republican press of the state, without regard to prejudice or preference, will do well to recognize the fact that personal abuse of an official or a candidate is the cheapest kind of support. Governor La Follette, as a man, enjoys the respect of the people throughout the state. Senator Whitehead is favored with the same degree of confidence.

These two men, will very likely, compete for leadership, representing two elements in the party that do not agree on questions of public policy. The principles involved, and not the men, are on trial. Any effort that is made to tarnish private character, on the part of the friends of either, merits just criticism, and any paper that descends to the level of personality should be condemned.

It is unfortunate for the press of the state that the campaign has been opened so early, as the general reader takes but little interest in politics, and a long drawn out discussion becomes tedious and monotonous. The Gazette fully appreciates this fact, while it has vigorously denounced theories that it does not endorse, it has attempted to be fair in dealing with the opposition. When the campaign is fully launched, which will be soon, the discussion of measures, will relieve the press of any excuse for discussing men, and there will be no cause for complaint.

THE NORTHWESTERN ROAD.

The contemplated change, in handling trains, by the Chicago & Northwestern road, very naturally interests Janesville people, because it means a loss in population, as well as in business. These changes, wherever they occur, affect localities, and cause complaint. The Gazette voices public sentiment in saying that if the change can be avoided, it will be appreciated by Janesville people.

The paper understands, and so will any man who stops to analyze the situation, that Janesville is not a natural division point. With Harvard and Baraboo as competing points, and with the new line just completed to St. Paul, making Fond du Lac a central station, the company is obliged to consult its own interests, and four divisions within a radius of 100 miles, would not be considered good management.

The company has always been hampered for yard room in Janesville and there seems no chance for immediate relief. It was hoped at one time that Spring Brook would become headquarters for shops, yards, and extensive improvements, but the scheme did not meet with the encouragement deserved, and it is doubtful if the effort will be renewed.

The city enjoys railroad facilities and train service, second to no city in the state, and while the loss of any patronage will be deplored, it will not necessarily retard growth and development.

It is a mistaken notion that a railroad ever attempts to antagonize a town, by slight or indifference. Every city and town on the line is a customer, and the men who control the management are more zealous of patronage than a merchant.

If the business men of Janesville will organize for advancement, and show a spirit of enterprise in working for the growth of the city, they will find no more willing and helpful ally than the railroads.

The strange infatuation of the warden's wife, for one of the Biddle Brothers, is one of the freaks of humanity, that is difficult to explain. A woman's heart sometimes becomes a fiddle that is not easily solved. In this case the woman had everything to lose, and nothing to gain, and yet she took the chances, and lost.

The worst blizzard that has ever visited the south, prevailed through several states last Friday, resulting in great loss of property, and much suffering. The northern winter appears to have forsaken its accustomed haunts, where people are prepared for it, to the southern country, where the experience is so novel, that no preparation is made to meet it.

Cigar factories in Manila are running night and day, on American orders. Two million cigars are now on the way, with large consignments to follow. Manila tobacco is not the equal of Havana, although it makes a good cigar, and is a favorite in some markets.

Milwaukee socialists are out with a full city ticket. The platform is unique, and provides, among other impractical things, for public coal and wood yards and ice houses. The ten cent tax on ice doubtless suggested the latter. It will be a cold day for the city when socialism gains ascendancy, and public utilities will be in brisk demand.

If it takes one game warden to capture a hunter, how many wardens and oil inspectors will it take to capture the state? Ask the state veterinarian.

The people of the state will be glad to know that the governor has regained his health.

PRESS COMMENT.

If the administration of Gov. La Follette has been so successful and the interests of the whole people been subserved as his followers would have us believe, why is it necessary for his appointees to be running to and fro throughout the state at the expense of the tax payers to secure names endorsing his administration? If he is so popular and the republican voters are anxious for his re-nomination, it would seem as if all this work was unnecessary and he could succeed himself with hands down. It is barely possible that his popularity has gone a glimmering—the people have discovered that he was a politician, and not even a little bit of a statesman.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The recent assertion by the Northwestern to the effect that the primary law issue in this state has passed into the background while its place will be taken in the next campaign by the issue of taxation reform has caused considerable comment and discussion. It is to be noticed, however, that there is little disposition to question the correctness of the prediction.

Racine Journal: Why this nonsense calling it spite work if one prefers one to another privous to conventions? The very life of the republican party depends upon freedom of discussion and of choosing candidates. Since when is it treason to favor John M. Whitehead or Senator Spooner for governor and senator respectively?

Whitehead's boom for governor seems to have been spontaneous and the action of labor, business and professional men all over the great Badger state in circulating petitions, shows plainly that the people are quick to appreciate true worth.—Menasha Breeze.

Tomah Herald: Right in this country, Deputy Game Warden, Gillette, has been working assiduously, not to protect the game of the state—but to organize a machine to re-elect La Follette. And all this time the governor swells up with pride at being a "reformer" and "with the people against the machine." He is the worst machine Wisconsin ever had.

Rice Lake Leader: Have you noticed game wardens strolling around the state? It is certainly something never before seen at this time of the year. What are they doing? Hunting for men who will vote for La Follette in the next state convention. Where do they get their pay? Out of the state treasury. Oh, reform, what queer things are done in their name!

Marquette Eagle: The combined organ is to be congratulated on its discovery at last that state employees under La Follette are spending more time electioneering than in attending to the duties for which they are paid.

UNDER WHITEHEAD'S BANNER.

With but a little time given to the work the petition calling upon Senator John M. Whitehead to permit the use of his name as a candidate for governor has been signed by over one hundred republicans in Lodi. In this matter there seems to be a perfect willingness for many former La Follette followers to enlist under the banner of Senator Whitehead, and but one or two have refused to sign the petition.

The readiness with which Lodi republicans accept Mr. Whitehead as the proper and logical successor to the present governor shows that they have studied the situation carefully and can appreciate the fact that as a reformer Gov. La Follette has been a failure. Senator Whitehead is very highly thought of in Lodi, and the general signing of the petition in his favor shows conclusively that La Follette has lost his following here—Lodi Enterprise.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL LEAGUE.

A meeting of representative republicans from nearly every town in St. Croix county, was held Wednesday, at New Richmond, at which a league was organized—one of the objects of which is to further the candidacy of Honest John Whitehead for governor, as an appeal for more liberal and representative methods in party and state rule. Hon. O. W. Mosher was elected chairman, Francis Van Meter, secretary. There was a large attendance and as great interest manifested as was to be found at the birth of the republican party forty odd years ago. There is consequently every reason to look for good results from this significant league. It has an opportunity to produce a wholesome effect upon the politics of the state for years to come. Its standard bearer—John M. Whitehead with his tax reform principles—is a sufficient guarantee that the league is building up on a good foundation. Whitehead deserves to win. If you want political freedom enlist under his banner.—Hudson Star-Times.

INCONSISTENCY.

The friends of Gov. La Follette will do well to remember that Mr. La Follette himself was a very ardent exponent of the proposition that a re-nomination for governor did not necessarily follow a nomination and election. In fact, so ardent was he and his followers, that failing in his purpose to prevent a re-nomination of Gov. Scofield, they carried their opposition to the extent that many of them refused to vote for Gov. Scofield at the polls. The friends of Gov. La Follette will do well to remember these facts at this time, and preserve themselves from the just charge of inconsistency.—Beloit Free Press.

COMMON COURTESY.

The Madison Journal affects to believe that a decent regard for the amenities of political controversy should keep in abeyance all opposition to the re-nomination of Governor La Follette in his home county, and that a solid delegation therefrom should be conceded to his excellency in the next nominating convention. So far, however, we have seen no evidence that the Journal is in favor of the extension of its philosophy even as far as Rock county, not a great way from Dane. Although the former is the home of Senator Whitehead, who is being importuned by his friends to become a candidate for the governorship and petitions are being circulated accordingly, there is not a county in the state where Mr. La Follette followers are hustling so actively as in old Rock, to promote the chances of his re-nomination. It is for the political Ward McAllister of the Madison paper to explain why his idea of politeness should obtain in Dane county and be ignored in Rock—if he can.—Appleton Post.

ACTRESS FORMERLY FROM JANESVILLE

Mrs. Edward Davenport, Who Appears with the Howard-Dorset Company Tonight.

Mrs. Edward Davenport, who with her husband, form a portion of the cast of the Howard-Dorset company which appears at the Myers this evening, was formerly of Janesville and will be kindly remembered by a large circle of friends in this city, where she was born and lived until a few years ago as Miss Ida Ruth Burnett.

Miss Burnett is a daughter of J. H. Burnett, who was engaged in business in this city for a long period of years and removed from this city to Chicago with his family in '98. Shortly after the families removed to Chicago Miss Burnett adopted the stage as a profession, playing with various companies until her marriage when herself and husband turned to vaudeville.

In the Howard-Dorset company they take regular parts in the piece of the evening and introduce specialties between acts. A large number of Mrs. Davenport's old friends will take advantage of the opportunity to see her before the footlights.

WILL NOT HARM JANESVILLE ANY

Changes Contemplated by the Northwestern, Have Been Magnified;

NO FAMILIES TO GO

Changes Proposed To Do the Rushing Business of the Road.

VIEWS OF MR. GLEASON

General Agent A. N. Gleason of the Northwestern, in this city, is authorizing the statement that the changes contemplated by the Chicago & Northwestern road, have been greatly magnified and are not such as will cause any loss to Janesville.

Mr. Gleason states that no families will be taken out of this city and that there will be just as much work in the yards and round house as heretofore.

The congested condition of the yards in this city has made it absolutely necessary on account of the present heavy freight traffic, to run some of the Chicago trains straight through to Harvard and Belvidere without change of crews. The through trains are made up at Fond du Lac, where the road has large new switch yards, and sent right through to Harvard. A number of these crews have been running through here for some time and the number of people that the change will take away from Janesville will be very small.

There is no cause for the people to feel that the Northwestern is trying to side track Janesville, as they feel as kindly towards Janesville as any city on the line, and have too large interests here to do anything that would injure the city.

The feeling has been stirred up largely by a few crews who make their homes in this city and are anxious to stay here, although they should expect to have to go anywhere the road wishes to send them.

The changes made so far are only of a temporary nature caused by the rush of business in the yards in this city where there is not enough room to handle the cars.

Mr. Gleason is positive in his statements in regard to the changes and knows that no harm will come to Janesville from them.

TAXES ARE COMING IN RATHER SLOWLY

Increase in This County All Along the Line Over Last Year—Plymouth
Only Town Paid Up.

The time is now open for town and village treasurers to make their returns to the county treasurer and the taxes assessed for county and state purposes are beginning to come in rather slowly, however, as the town and village treasurers are given until the middle of the month of March to make their final settlement with the county treasurer. Up till Saturday the only town that had paid its taxes in full was the town of Plymouth. A number of other towns, however, had paid a portion of the tax or at least the state tax which is to be turned over to the state treasurer at Madison.

The total amount of the tax levied upon the several towns and villages of the county for county and state purposes shows in most instances an increase of from $1,500 to $2,000 dollars over that of last year and in the case of Milton Junction the tax is over $3,500 more.

The grand total amount of the tax that is to be collected throughout the county is $168,878.35 and the amount collected last year was $121,515.16 an increase of $47,363.19. A portion of this amount is returned to the towns and counties. Each town and village receiving its portion of the one mill tax which the state gets on the sale of the pine and other lands.

The amount to be derived this year will be $36,127.66 against $17,425.22 which was the amount last year. An increase of $18,702.44. This means a considerable addition in the taxes next year as the law requires the towns and villages to raise next year an equivalent amount to that received this year.

Beside the amount the county receives by direct taxation, the income of the county is increased by special taxes, the greatest income of a special tax is that which accrues from the granting of licenses. The county receiving $7,350.00 from this source last year.

Aside from its portion of the one mill tax the county also receives between thirteen and fourteen dollars each year from the state for the care of the chronic insane. Last year the amount received was $14,059.17 and this year it will be $13,795.27.

An Alarm of Fire

An alarm of fire turned in from box 41 at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon called the department to the home of Joe Davis on South River street opposite the Janesville Barb Wire Works. The building is a two story frame with a one story addition in the rear. The fire was in a room at the rear of the one story portion and probably caught from a cook stove. The blaze was soon extinguished by a stream of water from one line of hose. The damage is nominal. The house was surrounded on all sides by piles of cord wood which would have made a hot blaze had they once got started.

Christian Endeavor birthday will be celebrated at the Baptist church this evening. The C. E. rainbow will be exhibited.

The Knights of Columbus will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting at the West Side Odd Fellows hall this evening.

Regular meeting of the Rock River Hive, No. 71, L. O. T. M., will be held this evening at East Side Odd Fellows Hall at 7:30. Mrs. Anna H.
Klenow, L. K.

The prettiest, daintiest patterns in embroidery work ever offered the local public are being shown by Bort. Bailey members' policies will be issued to them at this meeting.

The lecture of Mrs. Gargill Beecher, which is one of the entertainments of the People's Lecture course, occurs this evening. Mrs. Beecher will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience.

It is certainly worth your time to

They are now here and ready for your inspection. Bort. Bailey & Co.

At the regular meeting of the common council this evening Chief Spencer's report will be presented and the matter of paving South Jackson street taken up.

Chief Spencer was explaining the workings of the fire alarm telegraph system at the West Elgin fire station yesterday afternoon and pulled the wrong plug. The result was that one tap was struck on the big bell before the machine was shut off.

On account of the small pox in the building in which C. Herrick has the disease the school has been moved to the Court Street M. E. church Sunday school rooms. The things in the rooms were thoroughly fumigated before they were moved.

The severe cold of the past few days is making lots of work for the plumbers and steam fitters. The men are kept busy repairing bursted water pipes and overhauling steam pipes which the extra pressure necessary during the cold weather have revealed to be out of condition.

Miss Marcia Jackman is acting as substitute teacher in the third grade at the Jefferson school in the place of Miss Hickey who is out on account of the serious illness of her mother.

The regular monthly meeting of the Francis Murphy Temperance organization was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Sunday afternoon. There was an immensely large attendance, over sixty persons being present. The meeting was led by Fred Holden, and it was exceptionally enthusiastic.

One of the most attractive entertainments ever put on the People's Lecture Course is the one which appears on this evening when
Mrs. Isabel Gargill Beecher is the attraction.
Mrs. Beecher has reached the very summit of her profession and is regarded by competent critics to be the most natural interpreter of human nature on the platform today.

An odd little pair of rodents that are on exhibition in the window of the People's drug store are attracting a great deal of attention. The little animals are called cavy and are the property of Thomas Feary. They are found in South Africa and are in the rabbit species, having similar habits and living on the same foods.

The Woman's Foreign Mission Circle of the Court street M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Conant, 165 North High street on Wednesday of this week, February 5 at 2:45 p. m. sharp.
Quotations from the Acts bearing on mission. Bring Via Christi with you.
Every member and would be member especially invited.

The next attraction on the People's lecture course comes this evening next when Mrs. Isabel Gargill Beecher is the attraction. Mrs. Beecher will give one of her interpretive recitals and those of our people who were fortunate enough to hear her at the Delavan assembly last summer are very loud in their praise of her.

Remember the Grocery clerks' masquerade are compelled to double back and fourth over the road and as a consequence the men are looking forward to big checks at the next pay day.

The increased traffic on the St. Paul road is caused by the heavy shipments of stock from the Northwest. This business is picked up at points all over the northwest and converging at St. Paul comes down over the C. M.
& St. P. R. R. short line which runs through this city to Milwaukee.

The extra traffic on the Northwestern is caused by the heavy shipment of ores from the iron and copper country of Northern Michigan and heavy shipments of all kinds of lumber from the pineries. On the return trip the trains of both roads are largely composed of cars of coal for which they have found great difficulty in supplying the demand all winter.

Up to ten o'clock today there had been four extra stock trains on the St. Paul and before the day is finished ten more will have gone through.
The extra trains on the Northwestern to frequently proceed to Harvard before they are relieved.

BUSINESS MEN UPHOLD TAFT

American Chamber of Commerce at Manila Makes Recommendations.

WANT THE COUNTRY OPENED.

Ask for the Enactment of Mining and Homestead Laws—Gen. Bell Makes Encouraging Report—Native Newspapers Indorse the Views of Gov. Taft.

Manila, Feb. 3.—Deliberate consideration and extensive discussion have resulted in the chief business men of Manila indorsing Gov. Taft's assurance concerning the situation and his opinion regarding the reduction of the army. The American Chamber of Commerce contemplates officially supporting the Philippine commission's recommendations.

Capt. Frank Green, president of the American Chamber of Commerce here, says he fully believes that Civil Governor Taft's forecast can be realized if Congress will arrange to open the country to mining and homestead laws and to open and enlarge the forestry reserves. Should this legislation be effected, an act by the Philippine commission granting franchises would naturally follow and American capital in large quantities, as well as many American miners and homestead seekers, would come to the islands.

Gen. J. Franklin Bell, commanding the American troops in the provinces of Batangas and Laguna, southern Luzon, has arrived here to confer with Gen. Chaffee and Wheaton. He considers there is every prospect for the final termination of the insurrection in these provinces. Surrenders of men and rifles there occur daily.

The Spanish and Filipino papers generally support Gov. Taft. Some of the American papers estimate that 15,000 troops would be inadequate.

The Twentieth Infantry is encamping on the Luneta. It will start for home Feb. 15.

Gen. Bell has commended the energy of Lieutenant Connolly of the Twenty-first Infantry, who has obtained the surrender of 140 rifles. The minor surrenders for the week were twenty officers and sixty rifles.

Manager MacLead of the Maritime Steamship line will sail shortly for New York with the object of seeking to interest American capital in insular commerce. Foreign shipping firms expect to run opposition lines, conforming to the coastwise shipping laws.

Republics Sign Peace Pact.
Managua, Feb. 3.—The treaty of peace signed by the Central American presidents recently has been subscribed to by the secretaries of foreign relations of Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The treaty has been published. It provides for the maintenance of harmony between the four republics and for the establishment of compulsory arbitration for the settlement of all troubles between the countries. The opening of the court is set for September 15. It is expected that Guatemala will join in the peace movement.

Pearson Awaits Developments.
Chicago, Feb. 3.—Prof. Charles W. Pearson will consult with his pastor, Dr. William Macneef of the First Methodist church of Evanston, on the line of action he shall pursue in maintaining or severing his connection with the Methodist church. Prof. Pearson will wait, however, until the committee appointed by the board of trustees of Northwestern University shall have made its investigation and report before he seeks exoneration at the hands of the church.

Wished to Eradicate Poverty.
London, Feb. 3.—By the will of the late M. Vagliano, the Island of Cephalonia will benefit to the extent of about £500,000, which sum will remain in the London and Westminster Bank and the interest be transferred to Greece every year. It was his wish that there should not be any poverty on the island where he was born and for which he has already done so much.

Gunboat Machias Sails.
New York, Feb. 3.—The United States gunboat Machias, which has been at the navy yard here for the last month receiving repairs, sailed yesterday with orders to proceed to the West Indies and join the North Atlantic squadron, taking the place of the gunboat Marietta, which is now at Colon to protect American interests there.

Burglars Blow Open Railroad Safe.
Olympia, Wash., Feb. 3.—For the fifth time in four years the safe of the Northern Pacific depot in this city was blown open by burglars Saturday and its contents taken. On the former occasions a considerable sum was taken, but this time only $20 was obtained. There is no clue to the cracksmen.

Chile Contracts for Warships.
Valparaiso, Feb. 3.—It is reported that the Chilean government has signed a contract for the construction of two armored cruisers. This report obtains credence because Argentina has contracted for the building of three battle ships in European shipyards.

Count Tolstol is Seriously Ill.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—Count Leo Tolstol is very ill. He will be attended by a specialist from St. Petersburg.

BOTH BIDDLES ARE DEAD.

Coroner's Jury Says Edward Committed Suicide—Mrs. Soffel Still Lives.
Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 3.—Edward and John Biddle, murderers, who escaped from the Pittsburg jail after overpowering and wounding the guards, died Saturday night of the wounds received in the battle for life Friday afternoon. Mrs. Kate Soffel, the wife of the warden, who aided in the escape and furnished the men saws and revolvers, is in a critical condition. Symptoms of pneumonia have developed and, weakened by her wound and exposure, she may die at any moment.

One of the sensational incidents of the day was the finding of a lost love letter from Ed Biddle to his prison sweetheart, Mrs. Soffel. In the snow near the scene of their capture, which reveals the careful plot for their escape from the Allegheny County Jail. Mrs. Soffel fell in love with Ed Biddle in November. The burglar soon realized his power over her. It was not long until he started to write love letters to her. Mrs. Soffel fell madly in love with him, and in the early part of December he proposed a plan of escape to her. She consented to lend her aid. Between Dec. 14 and 16 they had completed all arrangements to escape from the jail.

Mrs. Soffel said she shot herself, but stated afterward that "Ed" Biddle shot her. The man denied this.

Another sensational development was the declaration by ex-Warden Soffel in which he says that on the night of the escape he was chloroformed by his wife.

These facts were set forth in the verdict of the coroner's jury: Edward Biddle, to cheat the gallows, shot himself. His brother, John Biddle, attempted to commit suicide, but was killed by a bullet from the rifle of the pursuing officers.

Sees Danger in Monroe Doctrine.
City of Mexico, Feb. 3.—El Popular, a penny daily, argues for Latin-American unity. "In order that the southern nations of the world may present a strong and compact front to their great neighbor, the United States, which is more powerful, if not more valiant, than the Latin-American nations, and may yet under the pretext of bestowing the blessings of peace on these countries impose its rule by force and then destroy Latin-American liberties. The famous Monroe doctrine is simply a means of preserving the equilibrium between the United States and Europe. The two tigers, Europe and the United States, stand opposed to each other, and the prey they desire is Spanish-America. While these hungry beasts of prey are disputing we should fortify for our common defense."

Steel Trust Returns State Lands.
Duluth, Feb. 3.—An important agreement has been reached between the United States Steel Corporation and the State of Minnesota. Several years ago, through an error, the state conveyed to the Duluth & Iron Mountain Road 45,079 acres of state institution land. The railroad officials have agreed to transfer these lands back to the state. On the land are three iron mines, which will yield the state $1,000,000 a year in royalties.

Terrance Going to Encampment.
Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 3.—Commander-in-Chief Terrance of the G. A. R. has started for Washington, where, Wednesday, he will confer with the pension committee. February 11 he will attend the Massachusetts G. A. R. convention in Boston; Rhode Island encampment, Providence, February 13; August, Me., encampment, February 14, and Maryland encampment, Baltimore, February 19.

Britain Follows America's Example.
Washington, Feb. 3.—Britain has announced her determination to abide by the policy determined upon by the United States with respect to the return to China of that portion of the Boxer indemnity which may be in excess of actual injuries and expenses, according to the report of W. W. Rockhill, late consul-general to China, which will be made public in a few days.

Blames Interstate Commission.
Louisville, Feb. 3.—The interstate commerce commission is to blame for the rate cutting which it condemns in its last annual report, says Walker D. Hines, first vice president of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, because it is due principally to the commission's utter failure to perform its manifest duty.

Horse Thieves Shoot a Farmer.
Elgin, Ill., Feb. 3.—John Greenbaugh, a farmer, saw three men stealing horses. He lay in wait and challenged the thieves. A running fight followed, in which Greenbaugh was severely injured by a bullet in his neck. The robbers escaped.

Kansas City Forcibly Surrenders.
Kansas City, Feb. 3.—Rollins Bligham, a member of one of the first families of Missouri, has surrendered to the police at Dallas, Texas, and asked to be returned here to stand trial on the charge of forging deeds to property in Kansas City twelve years ago.

Pollerman Is Killed.
Moweaqua, Ill., Feb. 3.—Policeman Ben Martin was shot and killed Saturday by Wesley E. Hawley, keeper of a restaurant in which it is alleged whiskey is frequently sold.

Howard Gets Life Sentence.
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Judge Cantrell overruled the motion for a new trial in the James Howard case and sentenced him to imprisonment for life.

Stricken Dead in Church.

Nashville, Ill., Feb. 3.—Stricken with death from heart disease while offering up prayer was the tragic fate which overtook Elijah Lamar at the Holiness Chapel yesterday. After a service of song Mr. Lamar was called upon to lead in prayer. While in the midst of this invocation members of the congregation noticed a tremor in his voice and saw him reel against the pulpit. Medical aid was instantly summoned, but the aged elder passed away without regaining consciousness. Mr. Lamar was a veteran of the Civil War, being a member of Company E, Forty-ninth Indiana Infantry. He was also a member of the local post, G. A. R.

To Change Peace Offer.
London, Feb. 3.—The Hague correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Holland intends to remodel her offer concerning peace in South Africa and renew diplomatic representations to Great Britain. "The British minister had an interview with Dr. von Lynden, the Dutch minister of foreign affairs, Saturday," wires the Brussels correspondent of the Morning Post, "and intimated that Great Britain would never negotiate with Mr. Kruger or Dr. Leyds."

Youngsters Ask for Pardon.
St. Paul, Feb. 3.—The board of pardons read and heard discussed a petition from James and Coleman Younger. The convicts now out on parole, asking for complete pardon. The case was taken under advisement.

W. C. Whitney to Retire.
New York, Feb. 3.—William C. Whitney is preparing to retire from active participation in the financial world, and has for some time been arranging his affairs with that end in view.

J. P. Dennett spent Sunday with friends at Evansville.

BARGAIN BABIES.

If babies were for sale the most inveterate bargain-hunting woman in the world would not look for a bargain baby. She would want the best baby that could be bought, regardless of price.

Every woman naturally craves a healthy, handsome child, and her craving can be gratified if she will but remember that the child's health is her own gift, and to give health she must

"My wife had been sick nearly all her life," says Mr. R. R. Frick, of Petersburg, Mead, Co., Illinois, Box 357, "and after trying everything I could think of I made up my mind to try 'Favorite Prescription.' I got six bottles, which my wife took, a tablespoonful three times a day, until the baby came. She felt better after taking the first bottle, and when baby was born he weighed nine and a half pounds. To-day he is six months old and weighs twenty-two pounds. He is as good a child as any one could wish. The doctor says he is as healthy as any baby could be, and also says the use of your 'Favorite Prescription' was the cause of such a healthy baby."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for the use of delicate women.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

If your heart palpitates, flutters, or you are short of breath, have smothering spells, pain in left side, shoulder or arm, you have heart trouble and are liable to drop dead any moment.

Major J. W. Woodcock, one of the best known oil operators in the country, dropped dead from heart disease recently, at his home in Portland, Ind., while mowing his lawn.—The Press.

Mrs. M. A. Birdsell, Watkins, N. Y., whose portrait heads this advertisement, says: "I write this through gratitude for benefits I received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had palpitation of the heart, severe pains under the left shoulder, and my general health was miserable. A few bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me entirely."

WORK FOR WEEK IN WASHINGTON

Legislation of Importance to Be Acted Upon by Both Senate and House.

THE PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL.

Number of Set Speeches on This Measure Are Scheduled—Repeal of War Revenue Taxes to Be Considered—Ship Subsidy Bill to Be Pushed.

Washington, Feb. 2.—For the most part, the senate will divide its time this week between the Philippine tariff bill and the bill increasing the salaries of members of the federal judiciary. The salary bill will be the subject only of running debate, but a number of set speeches will be made on the other measure. Among the senators who will be heard during the week are Messrs. Teller, Turner, Carmack, and Culberson. The friends of the judiciary salary bill say that Senator Stewart's amendment increasing the salaries of senators and members of congress will be unceremoniously voted down.

To-day Senator Hale from the committee on Appropriations will report the urgent deficiency bill and ask to have it considered to-morrow. The amendments in this bill providing for the entertainment of Prince Henry and the expenses of this country incident to the coronation may lead to some discussion, but no doubt is entertained of the final favorable disposition of those items.

In the house the oleomargarine bill has been made a special continuing order for to-day, and after it is disposed of, which probably will be on Tuesday, the bill for the repeal of the war revenue taxes will follow.

The question of Cuban reciprocity is also likely to be debated at length, as members on both sides of the house are anxious to define their positions.

Will Press Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Senator Frye, asked if he would continue to press the ship subsidy bill in view of the merger or pool of all the Atlantic steamship lines plying between the United States and Great Britain, replied that it was his intention to force the bill to a vote notwithstanding the combination of the steamship lines, of which he knew nothing. It is Senator Frye's intention to call up the subsidy bill and keep it before the senate until it has been adopted, immediately after the Philippine tariff bill is disposed of. The tariff measure will be out of the way in about one month, and Senator Frye says the ship subsidy bill will be passed within a week after it has been taken up.

NEGROES OF SOUTH ARE MOVING NORTH

Black Population Shifting to the Large Cities—Chicago Seems To Be Their Mecca.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—The negro population of the United States is migrating northward. From their homes amid the cotton blossoms and the magnolias they are seeking homes in the northern cities. If the present movement is long maintained, the negro will cease to be associated with the Sunny South and Dixie land. Washington, the capital of the nation, according to the census of 1890, had the distinction of sheltering the largest negro population of any city in the United States, although at that time it ranked fourteenth among all cities in size.

The last census dethrones Washington in the matter of black inhabitants, Chicago having surpassed the nation's capital in the ratio of gain, having reported a growth in negro population in the last decade that showed a gain of 4,749 more blacks than this city.

Philadelphia, if it maintains its present ratio of gains, will show a heavier negro population than Washington in 1920, and maybe in 1910. New Orleans for years has had the largest negro population of any city in the United States, holding the record until 1890, when displaced by Washington.

GERMANY'S TARIFF WOES.

Her Plans For Revision Meeting
With Great Opposition.

Germany's plans to revise her tariff is likely to bring about one of the bitterest struggles that the reichstag has had for a score of years. It is a revision demanded by the agricultural portion of the empire and opposed by nearly all other classes and is calculated to affect America more than any other outside country. The German agriculturists' grievance against the United States began years ago and arose from perfectly natural causes.

The American farmer can raise more wheat, oats, corn, rye, barley or potatoes to the acre than the German farmer, and because of the general use of improved farm machinery he can raise his crops at less cost. Beef, pork and mutton can also be raised more cheaply. In finding a market for our surplus American shippers have undersold the German grower in his own home in almost everything in the line of provisions. This has been hard on the German farmer, while it has benefited all other classes.

COUNT VON BULOW.

What is aimed at in the tariff revisions is to increase the duties on products from American and other countries until they will practically be barred out of the German market. There are various other interests at stake in this tariff issue, and every individual interest throughout Germany that is affected by it is organized against the bill.

Count von Bulow, the German chancellor, represents the government, which is pledged to a revision of the tariff, but in seeing the matter through he has his work cut out for him owing to the great opposition from all classes outside of the Agrarian party. The German chancellor was for many years the late Prince Bismarck's chief lieutenant at the foreign office in Berlin. Joining the diplomatic service in 1878, promotion to the post of minister at Bucharest and to that of ambassador at Rome and later to the ministry of foreign affairs in Berlin quickly followed. About a year ago he became the chancellor of Germany.

Men with enormous mustaches really have nothing to be proud of. Rather are they to be pitied. Those of high rank among the Gauls and Britons, according to Caesar and Diodorus, shaved the chin, but wore immense forests of tangled hair on the upper lip. The mustaches of the inhabitants of Cornwall and the Scilly Isles hung down upon their breasts like wings.—New York Press.

He Renounced the Faith.

The Rochester Post-Express tells of a godfather who, when asked in the course of the service if he believed what all Christians hold as the essentials of the faith, answered with emphasis, "I renounce them all," to the consternation of the parson and all the witnesses.

President Roosevelt and Speaker Henderson are engaged in a struggle for mastery in the matter of Cuban tariff reduction. Belief in Washington is that the House leader will surrender or compromise on a moderate reduction of sugar rates.
